The Celebration of Worship

Christ the King Weekend

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.

After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a "blend" of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of "Word & Sacrament." Therefore, "God's Word" is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and sermon with our Bibles open. FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to "examine themselves" (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion. Children of all ages may receive the sacrament! However, if parents prefer, small children may receive a grape given with the words, "Welcome to the Lord's Table."

Confirmation Question of the Week:
What does it mean to have Christ be the King in your life, and how would others see that in you?

Please pick up your MISSING COAT from the fellowship hall coat rack because on November 29 all coats still hanging will be donated to the COAT DRIVE.

Christ the King

Weekend

November 21, 2010

Today is Christ the King Sunday. When you first think of a "King" what first comes to mind? Is it palaces, riches, wealth, and power? Most Kings of our day and age are figure heads that really are nothing more than celebrities that are chased by the paparazzi.

In Jesus' day, this was not the case. Kings were absolute rulers: they attained power by raising and leading armies into war against other countries. Jesus' war was not against people or against a country, but against sin, death, and the power of the Devil. By his death, resurrection, and ascension, Jesus won the war against evil. All we are asked to do is to accept that Jesus fought and won the war for our sake and to recognize him as King of Kings.

Just as the criminal that was crucified next to Jesus said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." (Luke 23:42) Jesus' reply, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise," held true for that man, as it does for all of us, and those that believe in Him. (Luke 23:43)

On Christ the King Sunday, we recognize and worship Christ as King of heaven and earth for all time without challenge and without end. He conquered sin and death for all of us, and promises to be with us always.
Kirk Olson

Welcome, Guests!

We believe the Lord led you here. Please stop by our Welcome Center and sign our electronic guest book before you leave.

We welcome little children as we worship! In respect for others, you may bring your child(ren) to our well-equipped, staffed nursery during the service. Our speaker system provides excellent audio of the service in the Narthex and nursery. —Thank you.

A CONGREGATIONAL MEETING will be held on Sunday, December 5 at 12:15PM. This meeting will be for the purpose of both discussing the 2011 budget which will be called to a vote at the January annual meeting and facilitating a discussion and vote regarding proposed changes to the FCLC Constitution. Please plan to participate as we need your inputs and we also must have a quorum of the congregational votes in attendance. Refreshments will be served.

The nominating committee is accepting recommendations for the following positions for 2 year terms.

1. Vice President
2. Secretary
3. Stewardship Chair

Please contact Ed Smith or the Church office with recommendations.

Do you have a heart for the homeless in our community? Here's how you can help!! Faith Community makes sack lunches for the HOPE outreach program here in Longmont on the 3rd Sunday of each month, and our very own Outreach committee picks up the tab! All you have to do is shop for the groceries, make 20 sack lunches, and deliver the lunches to the HOPE warehouse. You can sign up to help once or twice per year, and you would be making a big difference in the lives of our homeless brothers and sisters. If you are interested in helping out, please email LaRae at laraeschaff@yahoo.com, or call her at 303-772-8385.

313, 431, 131

313 dollars raised by the Sunday School classes to purchase mosquito nets for children in Third World countries who are affected by malaria. Almost 120 children can now sleep at night, without the fear of contracting malaria.

431 books collected for the 6th grade Confirmation class book drive in November. Thank you all for helping the cause! 6th graders provided 70 book bags, each with 6 books to children at The Wild Plum Center (HeadStart) at their literacy night. These were some of the first books some of these preschoolers had ever owned!

131 Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes gathered from members of FCLC! Yay, for your amazing support!

CONFIDENTIAL GIVING STATEMENTS

The church recordkeeping system for the first half of the year was Church Windows and then we converted the CCB-FAITHBOOK mid-year. Confidential, individual giving statements were mailed to all contributors on November 12, 2010 which covered the first half of the year under Church Windows.

As a contributor to FCLC's building fund you may expect to receive in the mail a separate building fund statement in the next week which covers the first half of the year under Church Windows.

At any time you can access your individual statement for the 2nd half of the year in CCB/FAITHBOOK. Below are instructions to do that.

Click on my profile tab from home page.

Click on the last tab on my profile page is financial.

1. Type: select either family or individual
2. Date Range: select 01/01/2010 to 12/31/2010
3. Tax deductible or non-deductible

You can select to print giving statements for

- A. tax deductible gifts;

- C. both.

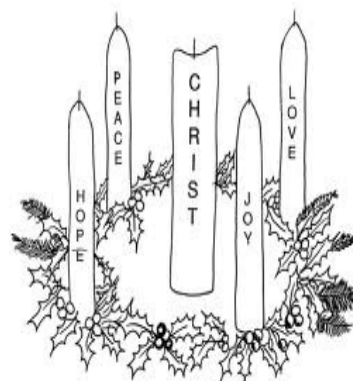

4. Select create...Select print...Done

Please know your personal giving information in FAITHBOOK is confidential.

ADVENT NIGHT

Prepare for Christmas by commemorating the season of Advent! Come join us for the annual tradition of ADVENT NIGHT, Sunday, November 28, 6-7:30 pm.

Scripture readings, Christmas music, decorating FCLC's Christmas tree, craft activities and Christmas edibles for all ages comprise this evening to focus on the true meaning of the Advent and Christmas seasons.

Remember. . .Sign up to reserve your family's project supplies on the Christian Education bulletin board at the bottom of the stairs by November 21.
